Itinerary Day by Day

Day 1: Departure from Brisbane

Board your full-service flight from Brisbane (other cities available), heading to the vibrant city of London. Get ready to embark on an unforgettable adventure with Oh Travel Co!

Day 4: Bradford – Edinburgh

All that lies between you and Bonnie Scotland is Hadrian's Wall. Unlike the barbarians it sought to keep out, you'll have free reign not only to view it but to cross it bound for the 12th-century ruins of Jedburgh Abbey. See how this symbol of power and authority over 'The Debatable Lands' still impresses today. This evening, an Choice Experience could see you take in a traditional Ceilidh, or time your visit to coincide with the rousing Edinburgh Tattoo with tickets included on certain departures.

Day 7: Scottish Highlands excursion

Straight out of a scene in 'Outlander', the Scottish Highlands has a mystical air about it which you'll come to discover as you explore its rugged beauty, evocative history and enchanting Highland ways. On your visit to Loch Ness this morning, keep a keen eye out for 'Nessie' before arriving in Inverness, the capital of the Highlands. Today's poignant highlight is a visit to Culloden, where Bonnie Prince Charlie's forces fought in the 1745 Jacobite Rising. Return to your hotel in the Highlands for dinner.

Day 2: Welcome to London

Touch down in London, where we'll be whisked away to our charming hotel in the heart of Kensington. After settling in, take the afternoon to unwind, explore the stylish streets of Kensington, or perhaps enjoy a stroll through the beautiful Hyde Park nearby. Dinner: Join the Oh Travel Co Group for a delightful welcome dinner, where you'll meet your fellow travellers and get a taste of the local cuisine.

Day 5: Edinburgh sightseeing and free time

Poets, writers, kings and queens have all found it impossible to resist Edinburgh's allure. From its medieval Old Town to the elegant Georgian façades across the Leith, you'll soon discover why it captured the hearts of so many famous people throughout the ages. Your Local Specialist reveals all the colorful tales of 'Auld Reekie' as your sightseeing tour rolls past the Palace of Holyroodhouse, the Royal Mile and Edinburgh Castle, perched atop Castle Rock. Explore the city your way during your free afternoon or consider joining one of two special Choice Experiences, discovering Rosslyn Chapel or exploring what lies behind the impenetrable walls of Edinburgh Castle. Don your tartan if you please this evening. Tonight, choose to visit the ancient village of Torphichen, where Knights Hospitaller once settled.

Day 8: Scottish Highlands – Glasgow

With its head in the clouds, Ben Nevis offers a majestic backdrop to today's scenic drive to Fort William, the self-proclaimed 'Outdoor Capital of the UK'. Views of Scotland's highest peak accompany the drive to Loch Linnhe. Continue to Glencoe where the tragic 17th-century massacre of the MacDonalds turned the wild beauty of this valley into a 'Glen of Weeping'. Travel along the banks and braes of Loch Lomond, where an optional cruise experience could take you to Rob Roy's cave, before arriving in gritty Glasgow later today. Your orientation tour of the city will include views of Glasgow Cathedral and George Square where many of Scotland's famous sons are immortalized in stone. An evening of good food and characteristic Glaswegian fun lies ahead if you choose an Optional Experience night out on the "toon".

Day 3: Discover London

After a delicious breakfast, it's time to dive into the wonders of London! With your 24-hour Hop-On Hop-Off Bus pass, you'll have the freedom to explore the city's iconic landmarks at your own pace or with our Oh Travel Co Guide. Marvel at Buckingham Palace, Big Ben, the Tower of London, and so much more as you hop on and off the bus, uncovering the rich history and vibrant culture that London has to offer.

Day 6: Edinburgh – St. Andrews – Scottish Highlands

A scenic drive through the ancient kingdom of Fife this morning reveals a time when these lush green hills were under the feudal rule of a Pictish king. Your first stop, however, is in the seaside town of St. Andrews, most noteworthy for its 15th-century university and inspiring the origins of golf. Put aside your dream of a hole-in-one and head to Pitlochry next, your gateway to the Highlands. You could choose to explore this salmon fishing center on your own or walk in the footsteps of queens during an optional visit to Blair Castle, home to Europe's last remaining private army. Later, an exhilarating optional encounter with a shepherd and his sheep could be on the cards. But it's the enthusiastic border collies on this Highland farm that are the stars of the show on this Choice Experience.

Day 9: Glasgow – Gretna Green – Lake District – Wrexham

Elope to Gretna Green, as many young couples once did to tie the knot over its marriage anvil. While the practice of handfasting was outlawed less than a century ago, this Scottish town remains a haven for romance and runaway lovers. Continue south through tiny northern villages and vast pastures fringed by ancient stone walls to the Lake District. Today's highlight is a stop at Lake Windermere where an Optional Experience brings this 'loveliest spot that man hath found' to life. Board an optional cruise on a boat and take a step back in time aboard an old-world steam train before arriving at your hotel later.

Day 10: Wrexham – Chester – Dublin

See the legacy of Roman rule during this morning's visit to the ancient walled city of Chester. You'll view its defensive 1st-century walls and the characteristic black and white half-timbered buildings, famously known as 'The Rows' before heading to the west coast. Cross St. George's Channel to Ireland and its youthful capital, Dublin. You'll arrive just in time for a Choice Experience at a local gastropub that will deliver the craic for which Ireland is so renowned.

Day 13: County Donegal excursion

Leaving civilization behind for the day, your scenic drive through County Donegal will deliver a multitude of dramatic landscapes. Golden beaches, rugged cliffs and uninhabited islands dot your route so keep your camera at the ready to capture these perfect gifts of Mother Nature.

Day 16: Co. Kerry – Blarney – Waterford

Kiss the Blarney Stone and acquire the 'gift of the gab' on your visit to Blarney Castle this morning. Show off your silver tongue throughout your scenic drive through Cork to Waterford, Ireland's oldest city. From the ancient Vikings to the Normans, they all made their mark on Waterford, but it is the city's glittering crystal mastery spanning the years since 1783 that have made it world famous. Visit the Waterford Crystal Showroom (when open) to see its artistry before an optional walking tour with a Local Specialist followed by a drink in a pub.

Day 11: Dublin sightseeing and free time

Embrace your playful side on this morning's sightseeing tour through Ireland's whimsical capital with a Local Guide. View St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin Castle and Trinity College, where the 9th-century Book of Kells, and Ireland's greatest cultural treasure, is housed. This afternoon, explore Dublin your way or join one of two Choice Experiences to visit important monastic sight in Europe. Your Local Guide will bring the ancient stories of Glendalough to life and show you around the beautiful landscapes of the garden of Ireland. This evening, join your Oh Travel Co friends for a toe tapping time on a Musical Pub Tour.

Day 14: County Donegal – Galway – Cliffs of Moher – Shannon free time

Galway's ancient reputation as a 'place of foreigners' is long gone, but much of its captivating heritage remains as you'll see first-hand during a stroll around Eyre Square. View Galway Cathedral, then leave the city behind for the plunging Cliffs of Moher. Take a deep breath and let the fresh sea air fill your lungs as you peer over the edge of the emerald-topped cliffs to the crashing waves of the Atlantic below. With a squint you may just be able to see the distant Aran Islands, but without much effort you'll spot the curious and colorful beaked puffins which are eager residents of the area. You'll visit the interactive Cliffs Exhibition before heading to your hotel in Shannon.

Day 17: Waterford – Cardiff

Board your return ferry to the United Kingdom this morning, arriving in Wales later where its tiny capital Cardiff waits to be explored. Your orientation tour will take you past its Millennium Center, the National Assembly and the historic Castle at its heart. Join an optional tour of Cardiff Castle followed by an optional evening of Welsh music, culture and humor.

Day 12: Dublin – Boyle – Co. Donegal

Cross the 'Emerald Isle', passing lush green counties as you wind your way north to Bundoran. There's no better way to admire the scenery than joining an optional cruise along the Shannon River. Later, view the ruins of the 12th-century Boyle Abbey before continuing to Donegal, the gateway to the Wild Atlantic Way. Nothing says sophistication quite like fine porcelain and this afternoon's visit to Belleek Pottery, across the border in Northern Ireland, reveals over a century of craftsmanship and art, the results of which can still be seen on dining tables the world over.

Day 15: Shannon – Dingle Peninsula – Co. Kerry Donegal

See the Ireland you've only encountered in pictures and on the big screen until now. Your drive around the stunning Dingle Peninsula reveals a land of stone monuments, wild beaches and verdant pastures. See tiny Gaelic settlements, colorful fishing villages and landscapes that 'catch the heart off guard', in the words of Irish poet, Seamus Heaney. Later arrive in Tralee in County Kerry, where the Rose of Tralee International Festival attracts 'lovely and fair' Irishwomen from around the world to compete for the crown of 'Rose'. A fitting way to end the day would be to join an Optional Experience with a show of Irish dancers. Embrace the spirit of old Ireland life and times and enjoy a hearty Irish meal.

Day 18: Cardiff – Bath – Windsor – London

As your epic exploration of five countries comes to an end, there's time to fit in some last-minute sightseeing before returning to London. Cross the Severn Estuary into England and venture to Bath, with its elegant Georgian architecture and the Roman Baths which have given this ancient spa town its name. Visit Windsor and view the world's oldest and largest inhabited castle before shopping for Royal souvenirs. The King's home is a sight to behold before you continue to London where your journey comes to an end.

Day 19: Farewell, London

Start the day with a leisurely breakfast before packing up for your journey home. There's still time for one last London adventure—perhaps a visit to a favorite museum, a stroll through Hyde Park, or some last-minute shopping. As lunchtime approaches, we'll head to the airport for our flight home, carrying with us unforgettable memories of our London journey.

Join a fantastic group of travelers as you explore the wonders of the UK, creating unforgettable memories that will last a lifetime.
